Dear Republican State Committee Friends,

As you gather for your summer State Committee meeting, I hope that you are aware of what an important role you play in this critical moment in history.

Our nation is facing enormous challenges today. Now more than ever we need to fight for the core Republican principles of free enterprise, fair and free trade, accountability in education, personal responsibility, tolerance, strong families, and a national defense second to none.

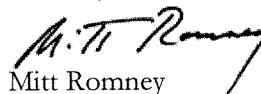

We must remain a beacon of hope and liberty across the globe. Republicans need to be proud of the kind of leadership we have worked so hard to elect around the country, and go to work in 2006 to ensure we continue our Majority. By joining together, supporting our candidates and county parties, we will be successful in 2006 and beyond.

I am the Honorary Chairman of The Commonwealth PAC, which is directed to help Republican candidates succeed at the grassroots level all over America. In 2004, we contributed nearly $70,000 to candidates and party organizations in Michigan. This year, we will double that effort to ensure that Republicans succeed at all levels in Michigan.

When people ask me, "What can Michigan do to turn its economy around?" My answer is simple. "Elect Dick DeVos." As the Chairman of the Republican Governors Association and as a Michigan native who cares deeply about the state, I am 100% committed to seeing Dick DeVos in the Governor's office next year. I am equally committed to re-electing Attorney General Mike Cox and Secretary of State Terri Lynn Land. The Commonwealth PAC also plans to invest in retaining our Republican majorities in the Michigan Legislature. And given my experience with activist judges, you can be sure that I am committed to seeing a conservative majority on the Michigan Supreme Court.

I plan to be in Michigan on a regular basis between now and Election Day helping candidates and parties reach their goals for victory. I look forward to seeing you along the way!

Sincerely,

Mitt Romney
